All pre-registered re-enactors and civilians must check in at registration at Diamond Don RV Park to receive a re-enactment pass to camping, skirmishes and lunch/dinner tickets. Re-enactors and civilians must be in period clothing during the event. Participants must sign a waiver/release form before registration is complete.

Registration Fee:

Participation in Train Battle on Saturday and Sunday is required.

You receive all of the following for $15 per person registration fee (for each member of the family) as long as you participate in the train skirmishes:

- Military camping in the period area of the RV Park. Modern RV sites with water/electric are available for $25 for registered reenactors. Fee to the public for RV sites is $35 per night. RV sites are limited, reservations are required.
- Wood, water, hay for animals, restrooms, showers, dump station, WIFI.
- Suttlers will also be located at the RV Park or at the Train Depot.
- Lunch on Friday for registered reenactors in period dress that participate in Living History
- Saturday and Sunday lunch for registered reenactors that participate in the train skirmishes.
- Saturday Evening Supper and Social at the Diamond Don Event Center – we will be playing period music.
- You will receive the meal tickets with your registration fee.
- Powder bounty for each gun, and small/large cannon, – you must participate in the train skirmishes to receive the powder bounty. The powder bounty will be awarded on Sunday after the lunch.
- Saturday evening cannon fire at dusk in the RV Park and fireworks.

PARTICIPATION IN FRIDAY LIVING HISTORY IS REQUESTED.
We have 300-500 children at the Friday Day of Learning.
